About

I am a multidisciplinary Berlin-based creative in film, photography, and graphic design. My work explores connections between human behaviour, nature, and history, using a research-driven approach to developing thoughtful visual narratives. With experience in on-set production, post-production, and team-based projects, I intend to create meaningful projects that blend storytelling with a deeper understanding of the world around us.

Projects

2024: Un Bel Nulla — Short Documentary (In Production)

Director

In the heart of the Italian Abruzzese mountains, a small community of ageing residents shares their joys and memories. Through them, we get a glimpse of a resilient way of life, in a village that knows it might not exist soon.

2021: In Onze Natuur — Short Documentary & Dance Film

Director & Production

A visual portrait of the Dutch in their attempt at mending their broken relationship with nature. They are faced with their most difficult adversary yet: themselves.
